Class Ode 1949

By

ELAINE FOLKINS

Classmates, the parting hour is here;
Now we must sadly bid adieu.
We never thought to shed a tear
Of sorrow, upon leaving you;
But yet fond memories, we know,
Will follow us where'er we go.

Life stands there beck'ning from the door
By which we soon must deign to leave.
Though we know not what is in store,
Our future patterns we must weave,
As on life's loom we busily spin
Destiny's tale of our desire to win.

Dear Alma Mater, we regret
That now 'tis time to say "good-bye".
In future years we shan't forget
The knowledge learned at Lowell High.
May we be true in all we do,
And keep your high ideals in view.—Farewell.

EDITORIAL BOARD

Since September of '48, we on the staff have been working constantly to bring the students of Lowell High your souvenir book—with all its memories of the four years you spent in this school. We are now able to sit back and survey with pride our finished product. An enormous amount of effort has gone into this publication, and praise is due to the cooperation of the faculty and the student body.

Few students realize the hours Miss Ryan has spent on this project. Without her experience and aid, the publication of The Spindle would never have been possible. To her we extend our most sincere and hearty thanks.

To Miss Shanley and her Personnel Staff we here express our gratitude for the long hours they have spent in typing copy for the printer.

We know that you will always treasure this "Spindle", for each time you re-read it you will re-live the days, the weeks, and the years well-spent here beside Lucy Larcom parkway.

The following pages are intended to give you enjoyment, and to bring many pleasant, humorous recollections that will be treasured in your heart for years to come.

Turn the page, for the best is yet to come . . . .

ADMINISTRATION

RAYMOND A. SULLIVAN—Headmaster

The first graduation ceremony for Lowell High School was held in 1858. Ever since that year boys and girls have left our doors to establish their reputations and that of the school wherever in the world their paths have lead.

In a school of this size the population is as great as that of a town, with as many varieties of individuals.

The whole faculty has worked toward developing in each pupil an ability to adapt the pattern of his life to the ability of his personality.

Each member of '49 will pioneer his life through the twentieth century with greater training than his predecessors who crossed the continent, and should hope for equal success.

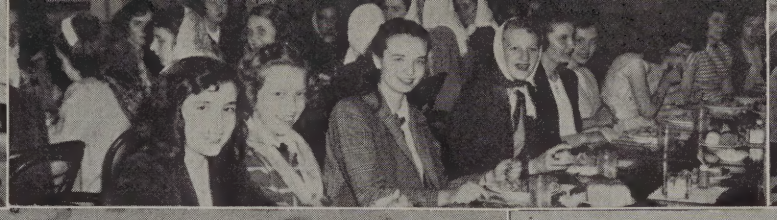
EASTERN MASS. ST. RY.



Class Prophecy

It seems just yesterday that we walked through the corridors of Lowell High School for the last time; and yet, if we would stop to think, we would realize that it's been all of ten years. Our classmates have gone many different ways, but all of them have found success in their chosen work. If you doubt my word at all, you need only read on to find out for yourself.

TITUS PLOMERITUS and his assistant, NORMAN CARVER, have coached a series of winning football teams at Mississippi State.

LORRAINE PEARSALL is kept busy answering all the correspondence her boss, internationally-known linguist and interpreter, PAT REYNOLDS, receives.

LARRY RILEY is still the efficient business man. Who could help it with a secretary like SHEILA GILBRIDE?

JOAN ALTEMUS' latest book, "Personality Attracts People", has already sold over a million copies.

As a member of the Lowell School Board, CHARLES ERWIN is trying to institute shorter working hours for high school students.

The reason for the sudden influx of patients into Peter Bent Brigham Hospital is nurse MARY KENNEDY.

Annapolis graduate, CHARLIE TEWSKBURY, has just received his appointment as Captain in the U. S. Navy.

BARBARA MEAGHER, America's "First Lady of the Theater", is now playing in a revival of "Joan of Arc".

Still an energetic club man—TOM BARRETT, new president of the Lowell Bar Association.

Two of the prettiest Powers model are Lowell grads—MARTHA PERRAULT and MAUREEN MURPHY.

GEORGE TSANDIKOS is being hailed by audiences all over the country as a second Jan Peerce.

MARILYN RUSSELL is strutting at the head of the Lowell Cadets, a world-famous band directed by ALAN PICKUP.

PHIL DANCAUSE, in his job as Military Aide to the President, makes frequent trips on the plane which HELEN CHADWICK hostesses.

A must on your entertainment list—CLYDE PAULASKAS and his accordion at the El Morocco.

JANET SYKES, formerly of Lowell, now of Pennsylvania, recently won a national pie-baking contest.

Lowellians are mighty proud of the Professor of Debate at Harvard—ROGER SANBORN.

Petite PAT QUINN has just returned from Russia (she's been helping to bring about better relations between the United States and the U. S. S. R.—in her own inimitable way).

Starting out as an ordinary hoofer, ROY HAYWARD now owns a string of dance studios from Maine to California.

Still keeping everyone guessing—New York debutante FLORENCE LANGLAND.

ROGER MCCAUSLAND's popular dance orchestra features HELEN HENRY as vocalist.

Hailed as the greatest discovery since Gregory Peck—BEN HOUSTON.

JUDY VEEVERS owns and edits Mademoiselle; localites on her staff include PAULETTE RICHARDS on the Fashion Board and JANET CLARK as Charm editor.

A brilliant young trial lawyer winning national recognition—GARRY MOUSHEGIAN.

The new speaker of the House of Representatives in Massachusetts is also a Lowellite, MAUREEN SULLIVAN.

SAM GOODSOOZIAN is the national authority on basketball, while PETE KALERGEROPOULOS coaches a professional hoop team.

BARBARA LAMBERT, who is the prima ballerina of the Metropolitan Opera, is on a personal appearance tour of the U. S. and Europe.

HENRY DOUGLASS, president of the Waltham Watch Company, has completely modernized the factory.

PAT MAHONEY is modeling for an advertisement for freckles remover, while her best friend, ILENE SHAWL, is the hostess at the Parker House.

TOM RALLS is now the Principal of Lowell High; recent additions to the faculty include: PAT KEON in the Girls' Department; CHARLIE ALBANIS, who teaches Business Law; and JEAN GLINES in the Personnel Department. MARY MCNAMEE heads the English section, incidentally.

Two of our former classmates have chosen the field of Science: ADRINA TIMES, who was one of the scientists responsible for the first trip to the Moon, and LARRY HANNIGAN, a prominent member of the Atomic Research Board.

BILLY MURPHY m. c.ees a television show starring KAY and JIMMIE FALLON.

JEAN DICKISON was named "Miss America" as a result of the recent beauty contest held in Atlantic City.

CHARLIE RYDER still goes for night life in a big way.

There was a Sold Out sign at the ticket window of the Met for weeks prior to PHYLLIS SKAFF's debut in "Carmen".

Bobby-soxers all over the country are swooning over new matinee idol, HOCK SHAW.

NORMA CONLON and JOCK LARDNER are a sensational ballroom dance team.

School attendance reached an all time high in Springfield this year. Could the answer be lovely schoolmarm, EVELYN MUNN?

PAT CAMPBELL is private secretary to financial wizard, JACK GARLAND.

JOHN LAMBERT is running a successful business as "The Singing Tailor".

Busily instructing classes in Life-saving at the Y—NANCY WILLIAMSON.

Since BOB SWAN joined the Red Sox team in 1951, his charming wife, JACKIE hasn't missed a single game.

Still an ardent fight fan—MARY ANN MCGUIRE, Broadway musical star.

We also have two representatives in the halls of Congress—MARY MCMAHON, who is abroad at the present time studying conditions in Palestine, and WALLY SOUZA, a member of the important Ways and Means Committee.

BOB SABA, chief U. S. delegate to the United Nations Security Council, argues daily with the aging Molotov.

ROSE GAZES has made a fortune manufacturing "candy".

JOE "QUICKIE" CONNORS is still quite the ladies' man—but definitely.

Noted in Washington society circles—charming sister duo, BURKE and GERI MCCREADY.

DAVE MANNING and KEN MCLOON were both elected to the list of ten best dressed men for this year.

Loquacious BARBARA RITTER is a prominent traveler and lecturer.

Track

The Lowell High School Track team, under Coach George "Mike" Haggerty, had a fairly good season. As a group the boys couldn't quite manage to pull off a win, losing many meets by close scores. However, some of the individuals on the team fairly sparkled. Among them were Captain Julian Mroz, Northeastern interscholastic 1000 yard champion; Bob Swan, shot put specialist; Brian Reynolds, high jump expert; Fred Pawlowski, 600 yard speedster; and Joe Mello, a consistent winner in the dash.

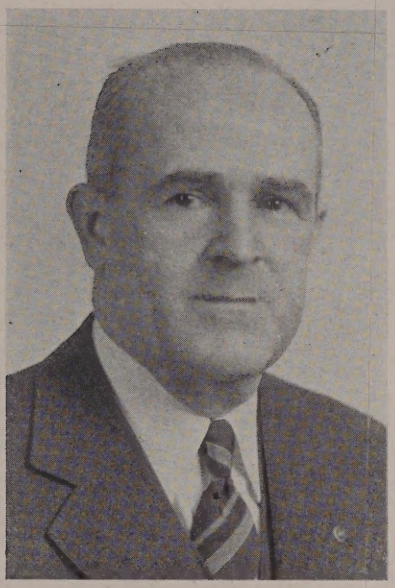
The Baton Twirlers



WILFRID T. BOULGER

On Thanksgiving Day 1948, the Lowell High School Baton Twirlers celebrated their fourteenth anniversary. In the fall of 1935 Wilfrid T. Boulger organized and trained a unit of thirty members and one chosen leader which appeared for the first time at the annual Turkey Day classic. This season about 75 girls including 6 leaders thrilled the crowds at all the football games with their well executed drills and precision twirling.

Although they do not belong to the High School Physical Education Department, they participate in the Field Day exercises each year. Applause always greets these snappy strutters in their white and gold uniforms at every Memorial Day parade. Small selective groups featuring solo twirling, Swiss flag swinging, electric baton maneuvre and vocal numbers have appeared before nearly every charitable and fraternal group in the city.

Two of the biggest events in the life of a majorette are the Championship Contest, in which the most accomplished girl of the more experienced division is honored, and the Rookie Contest, held later in the season to select the most advanced girl for her first year.

Twirling is a twelve month activity which has enabled its members to perfect their posture and develop poise.

Girl Officers

BAWITA LAWLER

Girl Officers

Under the supervision of Miss Bawita Lawler, the Girl Officers again make an outstanding appearance at Lowell High. At the end of their Junior year, these girls are chosen because of their ability in posture, marching, voice, clubs, and dance. Three out-of-town judges come each year to choose the girls to lead their fellow-students in their Senior year.

The Girl Officers, with their flashing swords have made Field Day unforgettable. Their Ball, held January 20, was another event we will all remember.

The officers have offered their services to many causes such as the TB Drive, and have acted as ushers and checkers at both school and civic affairs.

JOHN J. GIBLIN

The Band

The band of 1948-49 will always be remembered by all of us. It played proudly for us at our victorious football games. Although it did not have a chance to display its new uniforms, which arrived in December, during the football season, they marched proudly in them on our annual Field Day.

Since the band was first organized on January 1, 1923, it has been under the capable direction of Mr. John J. Giblin. Mr. Giblin can well be as proud of this year's band—just as proud as he was in other years.

GERTRUDE F. O'BRIEN

The Special Chorus

The Special Chorus, consisting of approximately eighty students, founded in 1935, is the best example of the musical culture of our student body. The Chorus is made up of Junior and Senior boys and girls selected by Miss Gertrude F. O'Brien, their director, from the regular chorus.

The boys and girls are proud to wear their maroon robes which signify that they are members of the Special Chorus. They rehearse every Thursday after school to prepare themselves for the many times that they entertain the student body, as well as many civic organizations.

The Orchestra

The orchestra of 1949 at Lowell High School has come a long way since it was first organized over a quarter of a century ago..At present the orchestra is under the capable direction of Miss Gertrude F. O'Brien and has approximately thirty boys and girls in it.

Miss O'Brien encourages any student who is musically inclined to join the orchestra. The members receive one credit toward their diploma. Wednesday after school in the high school auditorium is the time and place for rehearsals. Many of the students are encouraged to continue in the field of music after they graduate.

The orchestra appears at most of the school assemblies, the annual school play and entertains at many civic activities. We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the Orchestra and to Miss O'Brien for the wonderful music they have given us in 1949.

A lecture and demonstration all the students remember was given on March 18 by Dick Hall, the program chairman, on Atomic Energy.

The students had trips through Textile, the Gas Company and the Telephone Company. Presentation of science movies was an innovation this year. The Christmas party was successful.

The Science Club meets every other Friday in Room 310. Under the direction of Mr. James L. Conway, the meetings are run by the officers, Thomas Barrett, President; Larry Hannigan, Vice-President; Charles Albanis, Treasurer; Charles Englund, Secretary; and Dick Hall, Program Chairman.

Debating Society

The Greenhalge Debating Society of Lowell High School was founded on June 26, 1856, in honor of the late Frederick T. Greenhalge. The purpose of this organization is to incite in the youth of Lowell High the desire to become proficient in the art of presenting a strong and truthful argument on any subject.

Since Mr. Francis D. Reardon, present faculty adviser, has coached the youthful debaters, the society has won the majority of its speaking contests. The team has eloquently captured several district tournaments by means of declamation, original oratory, formal debating and extemporaneous speechmaking. This student debating group, an affiliation of the National Forensic League, has won the state championship for three years in a row.

In September members of the society began to argue the national high school topic for discussion for this year, "Resolved that the United Nations should now be revised into a Federal World Government." In its lighter moments the club participated in a humorous mock trial and in extemporaneous speaking contests on the national subject.

Through Judge Frederick B. Greenhalge, son of the founder, the organization awards gold pins to those who excel in the art of debating.

With a total membership of forty girls, the Tri-Hi has had a very successful year. Under the direction of Mrs. Winifred Surprenant, their advisor, they enjoyed their many parties which includes theater parties, the Sweetheart Dance, the Shramrock Hop and of course their annual formal with Hi-Y held during May.

The girls meet every other Wednesday night. Interesting talks by guest speakers on vocational and social fields are given and refreshments are served.

The Tri-Hi members also have the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet. All divisions took part in sending delegates to the Mid-winter Day Conference held this year in Boston, on March 5.

Hi-Y

A group of high school boys, some 40 in number, meeting at the Pittsfield Y.M.C.A. on March 11, 1911, organized the Pi-Hi Club. From other sources we learn that Chapman, Kans., organized work with high school boys as early as 1889. A few years later, the Pittsfield group dropped the original name and chose the term "Hi-Y."

The Hi-Y purpose is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character through clean speech, clean living, clean scholarship, and clean sportsmanship."

Since it is non-sectarian and undenominational, Catholics, Jews, and Protestants, can all be wholly at home in Hi-Y. And they are certainly at home on Tuesday evenings, for after relishing delightful suppers prepared by the "Y" Auxiliary, talks are delivered by noted men in various occupations. Many of these informal after-dinner talks are supplemented by slides and other illustrations.

As in previous years, delegates from the Hi-Y attended the 59th Older Boys Conference in Fall River for three days and delegates attended the National Hi-Y conference at Miami University in Ohio. Advising the boys are Paul W. McLaughlin of the faculty and Mike Pearson, Gen. Secretary of the Y.M.C.A.

This club has also put on a successful Halloween night and interesting College night and an entertaining Faculty night. At this last function each member invited a teacher as a guest and women teachers were given flowers. Highlighting the social calendar was the combined Hi-Y, Tri-Hi formal.
